2. Matters Arising

No matters arising

3. Reply Question from Council Meeting (Cllr Ann Graves)

A discussion was held around the question of establishing a Crime Task Force in Fingal. A number of Councillors expressed concerns about increasing levels of crime in their areas including anti-social behavior, drug dealing and drug use. It was acknowledged by all that while AGS are doing a great job, a task force is required.

It was agreed that David Storey & Adrian Henchy would meet with AGS to consider a working model for Fingal. A report will be presented to JPC.

4. See It, Say It Presentation

Brian Stephenson delivered the See It, Say It presentation to the meeting. The presentation was well received by all. AGS confirming that the scheme has been running in the Swords Area since 26th July and is proving successful.

David Storey requested that the actual figures be brought to the next JPC Meeting for consideration, possible funding will be discussed. It is hoped that the Scheme will be rolled out across the County.
