How to Buy an Affordable Home

Comhairle Contae
Fhine Gall
Fingal County
Council

1. Affordable homes will be advertised on www.fingal.ie/affordablehousing, Fingal social media channels:  and in the local press for a minimum of two weeks.

2. Apply for mortgage approval in principal or Local Authority Home Loan www.fingal.ie/localauthorityhomeloan.

3. Check your eligibility for the Help to Buy Scheme (HTBS) (www.revenue.ie).

4. Register on our Affordable Housing online portal located @ www.fingal.ie to apply.

5. Submit required documentation including your gross income, proof of right to reside, deposit details (savings, gifts, and/or HTBS) to confirm your eligibility.

6. Fingal will assess the validity and eligibility of your application. Properties will be offered in order of date and time of your application.

7. Fingal will calculate the equity share based on your purchasing power.

8. Fingal will advise the developer/selling agent to contact you to choose from available properties based on your affordability.

9. Pay your booking deposit to the developer to secure your property. Your booking deposit is fully refundable until signing of contracts.

10. Apply for formal approval of loan offer. Be aware you may need an extension on your mortgage approval if there are any delays.

11. Contract of Sale and Affordable Dwelling Purchase Agreement (ADPA) will now be issued to your Solicitor.

12. Arrange House and Mortgage Protection Insurance.

13. Sign Contract of Sale and ADPA with your Solicitor.

14. The developer will invite you to snag your new home. You may engage a surveyor to carry out this work for you or you can do it yourself.

15. Contact your lender to request a draw down of funds. The Developer will carry out any snag works if required.

16. Affordable Dwelling Contribution funds are released, and your purchase can now proceed following receipt of HTBS fund, if applicable, and draw down of lender funds.

17. Both Solicitors will agree a closing date of sale and the developer will contact you to arrange collection of your keys.

Congratulations!
Welcome Home.

The Paddocks, Donabate

Donabate is located on a peninsula surrounded by natural scenery and coast, a comfortable distance from the bustle of Dublin City. It's the ideal base for couples and families who value healthy lifestyles, access to quality education and activities, whilst an easy commute to Swords, Dublin City and the airport by car, bus, or train. The popularity of The Paddocks, Donabate which retains its friendly village atmosphere is easily understood beach walks, countryside hikes and all amenities walking distance from your home... yet only 30 minutes from Dublin.

These homes are situated in The Paddocks, a development arranged around a central crescent surrounded by landscaped open space. There are a great selection of local shops walking distance from your home while larger retail centres such as Pavilions & Airside are only minutes drive. School starts in the Community Pre-School followed by St Patrick's National School, Educate Together and Donabate Community College.

Apart from coastal walks, sports are well catered for in the Donabate-Portrane area and include GAA, tennis, hockey, soccer, and basketball clubs. It is somewhat of a golfer's paradise with Corballis, Balcarrick, Donabate, The Island and Beaverstown all close by, whilst slightly further afield are Portmarnock and St Annes. The local Leisure Centre is close to The Paddocks, offering a full range of fitness, sport, martial arts and kiddies' classes as well as the local library.

When venturing out from Donabate at the weekends there are a myriad of coastal towns and villages offering their unique individual slant on life Skerries, Loughshinny, Howth, Malahide and not to forget a visit to Newbridge House & Farm, a must for all kids!

Millers Glen, Swords

Swords is one of Dublin's most popular residential commuter locations, offering great connectivity to Dublin City, Dublin Airport and the M50. It enjoys excellent schools, public transport, and wonderful sporting, leisure and local amenities. Within Swords, in recent years, Millers Glen seems to have developed the reputation of being the people's champion when it comes to the preferred place to live.

It's not difficult to understand why Swords has become so popular. As the county town of Fingal, it has established as the preeminent non-coastal residential town in the County and has experienced significant growth. As Swords has developed in recent years, so have the exceptional amenities and facilities. New schools, superb shopping facilities, easy access, recreational parks and sports clubs combine to make Swords a very desirable place to live. The Pavilions is one of Dublin's best retail centres with a fantastic range of shops as well as Movies@ Swords a multi-screen facility with a variety of eateries to make a night of it!

Swords and its surrounding hinterland have much to offer the sporting enthusiast. There are several parkland golf courses including, Swords Golf Club, St. Margaret's, Roganstown and Forrest Little, along with a host sports clubs, GAA, soccer, rugby and tennis. For those interested in the outdoors nearby parks include the linear park beside the Broadmeadow River, Newbridge House & Farm, Malahide Castle, River Valley Park, and Swords Castle. For country sports enthusiasts there are equestrian pursuits including cross country and jumping, fishing, hiking and a number of clay pigeon shooting ranges nearby. Malahide and Portmarnock beaches are also within easy reach catering for seaside walks with a host of popular boutiques, delicious restaurants and friendly hostelrys in which to wind down afterwards.

Mooretown Swords

Swords is one of Dublin's most popular locations, offering great connectivity to the city, Dublin Airport and the M50. It enjoys excellent schools, including two in Mooretown itself, and wonderful sporting and leisure amenities. Mooretown is a short stroll from local neighbourhood shopping at Millers Glen, with additional shopping at The Pavilions or JC's on Rathbeale Road.

As Swords has developed in recent years, so have the exceptional amenities and facilities. Many new schools, including two in Mooretown, have opened. Superb shopping facilities, great roads, parks and sports clubs all combine to make Swords a very desirable place to live. The Pavilions is one of Dublin's best retail centres with a fantastic range of premium brands including Dunnes Stores, SuperValu, H&M, Zara and Tommy Hilfiger to name but a few. Movies@Swords is a superb multi-screen facility and there are several eateries in the complex.

Swords and its immediate surrounds has much to offer for the sporting enthusiast. There are several highly regarded parkland golf courses on your doorstep, namely, Swords Golf Club, St. Margaret's, Roganstown and Forrest Little, along with a host of GAA, soccer, rugby and tennis clubs. For those interested in the outdoors, there are several parks close by such as the linear park beside the Broadmeadow River, Malahide Castle and Gardens, River Valley Park, Newbridge House and Farm and Swords Castle.

The beaches at Malahide and Portmarnock are also within easy reach catering for seaside walks with a host of popular boutiques, delicious restaurants and friendly hostelries to wind down afterwards.

Fingal County Council Affordable Housing at Donabate, Belcamp, Lusk and Swords

16 houses in various locations across North County Dublin are being made available for sale by Fingal County Council under affordable dwelling purchase arrangements. This will be carried out under the Affordable Housing Act 2021 and associated Regulations. The scheme will be aimed at first-time buyers (although some exceptions apply). The homes available for purchase are located in the following Developments: Millers Glen, Swords (6 houses); Mooretown, Swords (2 houses); Station Road, Lusk (3 houses); The Paddocks, Donabate (3houses); and College Avenue, Belcamp (2 houses). The house types available for purchase are listed and information provided in this document.

*Please note that any income limits are indicative only. Please refer to our FAQs at <https://www.fingal.ie/AffordableHousing> to view the exceptions to the limits.

The purchasers will enter an affordable dwelling purchase agreement with Fingal County Council. Under this agreement the Council will take a percentage equity share in the dwelling, equal to the difference between the market value of the dwelling and the price paid by the purchaser. The Council may not seek realization of its affordable dwelling equity for a 40-year period (other than for breach of the agreement). However, the purchaser may choose to redeem or buy out the affordable dwelling equity at any time either through one lump sum, or a series of payments to the Council.

In order to be eligible to apply for the scheme, applicants must satisfy the below criteria:

- Be a First-Time Buyer or meet the exceptions under the Fresh Start Principle.
- To apply for a 2-bedroom property, typically gross household income for the preceding 12 months should be below €85,500. *Some exceptions apply
- To apply for a 3-bedroom property, typically gross household income for the preceding 12 months should be below €106,875. *Some exceptions apply
- To apply for a 4-bedroom property, typically gross household income for the preceding 12 months should be below €120,769. *Some exceptions apply
- Each person included in the application must have the right to reside indefinitely in the State.
- The affordable home must be the household's normal place of residence.

Any application will be prioritised based on time and date of application together with preparedness of individual purchasers. In addition to this, 30% of the homes will only be available to applicants who have been, or are currently, a resident in the administrative area of Fingal County Council for a minimum period of 5 years.

Applications will be accepted via an online application portal. Applications can be made starting from 12 noon on 26th April 2024.
